CAMERON SCHOOL OPEN MONDAY

J. B. WHITE

September brings for most children that great day when the school house doors open, and those many succeeding days when youth troops into school houses, and submits to discipline, and begins the great job of preparing for life.

It is the nature of early youth to feel a certain irresponsibility. Youth loves to wander in the fields and on the street, seeking pleasure like a butterfly flying from flower to flower. Up to the time of going to school youth is freed of all cares. Parental hands supply food and clothes, and everything is done by good parents to make youth well and happy.

But when the school house doors open for the first time, youth enters upon a new experience. The work of life begins at that time. Youth discovers that it has duties and responsibilities.

It is like the day when the young colt of the pasture is broken to harness. He may resist, when he finds he can no longer kick up his heels indefinitely, nor wander off into strange fields and jump fences to browse on every tempting clump of green grass. The time has come when he must learn how to take his part in the working world.

The youth of today wants its share of the world's good things, but it can see that it must have education to obtain that share. So whereas in years past, youth was often listless in school, the youth of today is as a rule willing to learn.

The joys of summer are not very conducive to effort. On hot days people will sit down and whiff, and it is about all they can do to go through the ordinary motions of life. They march round and round the same routine and have no spirit for new efforts.

But as the sun sinks lower in the horizon, as his fierce beams no longer exhaust your vigor, the cooling air of Autumn flows in from the north. There is no time of the year when nature gives such a vigorous exhilaration. The breath of the Autumn brings strength. It should be an inspiration to real work.

If we can't go out and do something big in the stirring air of September, we never can. It is the time for the business man to plan new campaigns. It is the time for the worker to put in extra good weeks, and it is the time for the student to take hold of lessons with renewed zeal. Let us all "get a move on" as the old slang phrase had it.

The Cameron schools soon to reopen, it again becomes the duty of motorists to exercise particular care, especially in driving along streets in school zones.

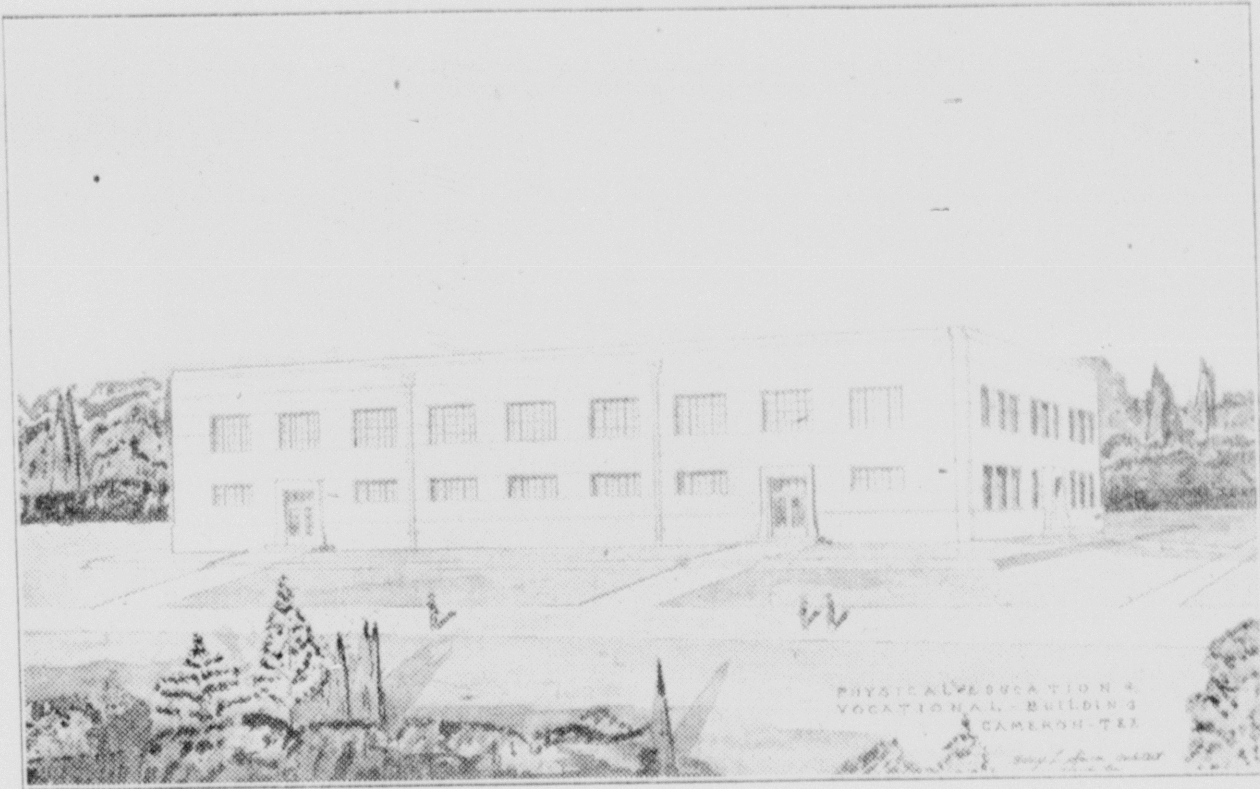

Children can not be expected to be as careful in avoiding street hazards as older persons. This lack must be made up by motorists in observing strict safety requirements. The excuse that the child victim of a fatal or serious accident had "darted in front of the car" will lack force if it is applied to an accident in a school zone. Operators of cars in such areas should control their vehicles such as to be able to stop them on a moment's notice.

Alertness and care on the part of drivers will go far in keeping down the accident rate involving school children.

Milam Democrats Asked For $1384 For Roosevelt

Milam County Democrats are called on for $1,384.00 as their share of the national campaign fund to re-elect Roosevelt and Garner.

Texas quota is $250,000. Milam county has shared large in the benefits and does as well as appointments to federal positions. It should be easy to raise the amount of money required for the national slush fund, it was agreed here, if those who have benefitted come across.

W. O. W. LEADERS TO ATTEND MEETING HERE

Members of the Woodmen of the World, Woodmen Circle, former members of Woodcraft and the public generally are invited to an open meeting to be given by Pecan Camp W. O. W. in the basement of the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, September 8th at 7:30 o'clock.

All those interested in the battle against tuberculosis will be glad to hear Dr. Koerth and see this picture. G. B. Kirk, district manager and his assistant manager, J. P. Mayes, will also be present.

Everybody is urged to attend. After the meeting there will be initiatory work at the W. O. W. Hall.

Tree Soldiers Are Now Being Taken At Relief Office

The Milam County Relief Office is now taking applications of persons desiring to enroll in CCC. The next enrollment is expected in October but it will be necessary to have an estimate of the number who want to enroll by September 10th.

Men between the ages of 17 and 28 who are members of WPA families or families in need of relief are eligible for enrollment. Applications may be made with Mrs. Juanita Lyon, Cameron, and Miss Emma Hardie, Rockdale.

The end of another beautiful friendship was recently announced. An eight-karat diamond has broken its engagement to John Barrymore.

INSECT CONTROL IS DEMONSTRATION IDEA

An experiment to show the control of cotton boll worm, boll weevil, flea hopper and leaf worm is being carried on near Little River bridge on the farm of Mack Akers.

The work is being done by W. S. McGregor, entomologist, under the supervision of Dr. F. L. Thomas, head of the Texas experiment station at College Station, Texas.

The work was started on August 10th, and four applications of calcium arsenate has been applied with one application of sulphur, and 4 applications of calcium arsenate with Paris Green mixed has been applied on another plot. Very good results are being shown. All farmers of this section are invited to visit the experiment.

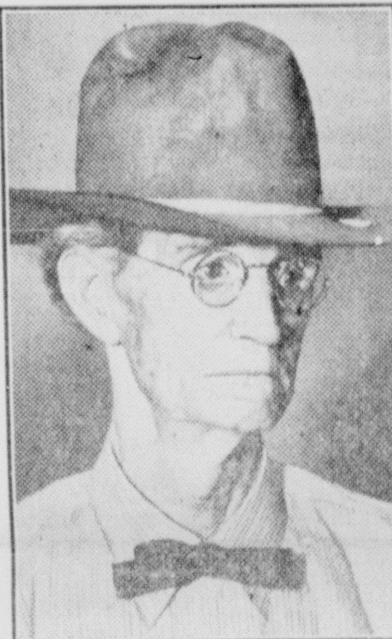

George Banzhaf, County Agent, Milam County.

JOHN C. BOUNDS OF WATSON BRANCH DEAD

Funeral services for John C. Bounds, 89, of Watson Branch, were conducted Sunday at Taylor, Williamson county, where interment was made.

Mr. Bounds has been a prominent citizen of Milam county for many years. He died at his home Saturday at Watson Branch after a short illness. He was born in Little Rock, Arkansas. Surviving are his wife and several children.

Two Old Timers

Here's one for you, Mr. Ripley, W. D. Austin, an abstractor and conveyancer in Rockwall, Texas, has worn the same ten-gallon Stetson for the past sixty-two years. Mr. Austin claims it is the oldest hat in use in the Southwest and perhaps in the world.

Action Again

(Peeping Reporter)

Some thirty rookies and no football players are scrambling about on the Yeomen gridiron, scorching beneath a hot September sun and squirming under the cutting criticism of Coach L. C. Wood, "Czar of the pig skin." Most important to every lad on the squad is the chance to play in the opening game with Marlin, which is only fifteen more back-aches away—and to conceal that limp that mother looks so concerned about.

Luther Poole, star tackle of "35," has come back into the folds and shows intentions of making the team this fall. Jos McLean, boss of the "gym," gets a big kick out of showing his physique to the youngsters of the squad; but if he doesn't snap out of it he will be getting a big kick out of the game on the 18th. Earl Peck sacrificed a permanent wave for the glory of football. It was either catch the girls or catch the football and Peck chose to catch the football. He says he can get another permanent after the football season is over.

No one can say just who will make up the first string eleven but we can say that the five lettermen of last season stand a good chance of sitting on the bench this fall while the rookies play football.

TEXAS BUILDING TO BE DEDICATED

Citizens of Milam County are invited by the State Board of Control to attend the dedication of the Texas Building at the Centennial Exposition in Dallas.

The dedication will be held Saturday September 5 at 8 o'clock.

George Waller Cashier of First National Bank

George Waller will become director of the First National Bank at the meeting of Board of Directors to be held on Tuesday, September 8th. It was announced at the bank Tuesday of this week.

Mr. Waller is purchasing a substantial amount of the stock of the bank and will give his entire time to the duties of his office as Cashier of the bank.

It will be recalled that Mr. Waller married Miss Bessie Hefley, a daughter of the late John M. Hefley, founder of the First National Bank, and its president until his death in 1904. Mr. Waller lived for a number of years, following his marriage, in Geiger, Alabama, where he was connected with a bank as cashier, and for the past few years Mr. and Mrs. Waller have made their home in Cameron.

H. M. Hefley who has held the office of Cashier and Active Vice President, will devote his entire time to the place of active vice president to oversee the general operations of the bank. There will be no changes in the personnel of the bank. All men now in official places will be retained.

The election of Mr. Waller as Cashier of the bank is the most important business development in recent months and friends and patrons of the bank will be glad to know he is to become its cashier.

NOTICE

RECORD REGISTRATION IS LOOKED FOR HERE

Cameron schools will open for the 1936 fall term on Monday morning, September 7th.

A record registration was expected due to the increased advantages now being offered in Cameron schools. Chief among the improvements since the last term is the new vocational and physical education building which in addition to giving greater facilities for physical education will house a number of departments including the band and music rooms.

The building is rapidly being completed. No vacancies are reported in the faculty despite wholesale resignations since the close of school last June.

The most important development of the week was the transfer of 30 students from Buckholts in the 10th and 11th grades.

Superintendent E. A. Perrin announces ready for the opening on Monday. A national holiday—Labor Day—but it is important that the schools be not delayed a week in opening the new term.

MRS. ED. WESTBROOK DIES IN CITY MONDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Ed Westbrook, 48, of this city, were conducted from the Baptist church at North Elm Tuesday afternoon, with Rev. Maurice Grove, pastor of the local Christian church, officiating. Interment was made in North Elm cemetery.

Mrs. Westbrook was born and reared in the North Elm community and was married December 31, 1906 to Ed Westbrook, also of that community.

Mr. and Mrs. Westbrook moved to Cameron in 1928 and have lived here since. Mrs. Westbrook was a member of the Christian church. She died on Monday night at 9 o'clock after a short illness.

30 BUCKHOLTS HIGH STUDENTS TO CITY

Pupils in the 10th and 11th grades of the Buckholts High School will transfer to Cameron and begin the 1936 fall term on September 7th. It was announced these pupils will number approximately 30.

Transfer of these students means that Buckholts has discontinued the higher grades of their high school, additions made last year in that school.

Harvey Yoe of Buckholts and native Cameron boy, has been elected to teach in the Cameron schools and will be assigned at the opening of the term next Monday.

Proposition to tender these grades to Cameron was made to the Cameron school board on Wednesday night of last week. The board voted to accept the transfer and elected Mr. Yoe. It was required in the transfer deal that the local school must absorb one of the teachers from the Buckholts school.

Mr. Yoe is a graduate of the Southwest State Teachers College in San Marcos, and is regarded as a splendid addition to the teaching staff of the Cameron schools.

Cameron citizens welcome these students from Buckholts to the local school and praise the school board for its co-operation in bringing these students to Cameron.

Robbers Work Long But Fail To Crack Safes Here Friday

Robbers made an unsuccessful attempt Friday night to crack the safes at the Graben Chevrolet Company and the Coca Cola Bottling Company.

According to statements made by residents awakened by the noise made by the robbers hammering on the safes, the thieves took their time but despite a prolonged, unmolested attempt, they could not break the money vaults.

At the Coca Cola plant the safe was rolled from the building into an alley next to the C. E. Coleman home. The robbers were finally driven away when City Marshal Gene Smith, awakened in the early morning by a telephone call from Mr. Kirk who lives in an adjoining block, drove to the plant and gave chase. The men were driving a Terraplane and left the city over Highway 36 in the direction of Buckholts. A short distance from the city the robbers left the Marshal far behind as they hit the open road.

Next morning Deputy Sheriff Clarence McCall found a cloth glove and a steel chisel used to knock the knob from the safe door. The safe was not entered and therefore no money was taken.

ALOHA WANDERWELL "TURNS NATIVE" IN INDO-CHINA WILDS

Adventures of New York Woman Bizarre as Tale From "Arabian Nights."

Los Angeles.—Bizarre as any tale from the "Arabian Nights" is the newest adventure of Aloha Wanderwell, now the blond leader of a weird foursome reported to have "gone native" deep in the jungles of Indo-China.

Virtually without funds and scornful of the hardships encountered in a hazardous trek across southeastern Asia from Singapore to Calcutta—often minus food, water and gasoline for her motor caravan—the striking twenty-seven-year-old girl is determined to conclude an ill-fated expedition begun two years after her husband's unsolved murder here.

Dominates Companions.

Occasionally the doughty widow of Capt. Walter Wanderwell, found mysteriously slain aboard his yacht in Los Angeles harbor in December, 1932, seeks refuge in a town. With her three companions apparently enslaved to her will, she sometimes stages an impromptu show for a few odd coins.

Sometimes she is able to convince hotelkeepers that publicity attendant to her visit will repay guest privileges.

More often, however, she is forced to make short jumps in a large white-painted car of ancient vintage, camping out en route, eating roots and berries and falling back on the hospitality of native tribes whenever possible.

Still true to the adventuring spirit of the man whose name she uses, her jaunt is called the "Walter Wanderwell Educational Expedition."

Amazing Courage.

This latest chapter in Aloha's amazing career was revealed a year and seven months after the fascinating woman dropped out of sight in New York.

Confirming bits of the story relayed by jungle gossip and travelers, James B. Shackelford, famous cinematographer member of the Tay Garnett film expedition around the world, said the woman's experiences have become a legend of the Far East.

Said Shackelford: "The girl must have amazing resources of courage. But her sex seems no handicap to her flair for the unusual."

"How the expedition got there, or how it was financed that far is a complete mystery. Often, however, we heard of their movements as we journeyed through the Malay peninsula. And although we never actually caught sight of them, we were told remarkable tales of their exploits."

File Fingerprints With

U. S. Government Bureau

Washington.—Notables and average citizens in increasing numbers are insuring their prompt identification in case of dangerous injury or sudden death by filing their fingerprints with the federal bureau of investigation, a survey disclosed.

J. Edgar Hoover, chief, reported a grand total of 5,897,000 fingerprint cards now on file, with new ones pouring in at a rate of 4,000 daily.

The bureau maintains two fingerprint files—civil and criminal—both offering what the Justice department regards as protection of "inestimable value."

The civil section now numbers cards of 115,110 citizens, including persons of such assorted prominence as John D. Rockefeller, Jr., British Ambassador Sir Ronald Lindsay, John Edes and James Cagney of movie fame, and Freeman Gosden and Charles Gorrell, the "Amos and Andy" of radio.

Child Born in Canada

With Heart on Outside

Edmonton, Alta.—Born with his beating heart outside his body, an eight-pound baby boy was reported doing well by puzzled doctors in the City hospital here.

The child was born naturally to Mrs. Fred Sandonek, thirty-seven, wife of a farm laborer, in their home near Willingdon. The doctor in attendance, amazed at the phenomenon, rushed the child to the hospital, where an operation to replace the heart in the chest cavity is planned.

Physicians said part of the baby's chest wall is missing, leaving the pulsating organ entirely exposed except for the thin pericardium sheathing.

The beat is strong and regular. The baby's appetite and general health were reported good.

White Crow Is Executed

by Winged Black Legion

Virgen, Man.—A white crow was tried, condemned and executed by his peers as a "public enemy" here.

The strange spectacle was witnessed by William Goff, a farmer. Goff said a flock of crows forced the white crow, which had been painted white and domesticated, to the ground, sat around for several minutes, cawing loudly, and then pounced on the prisoner and pecked it to death.

Odd Texas Is A Book of Surprising Facts And Issued In Graphic Cartoon Form for Texans

BY CECIL BAUGH

Texas rightfully belongs to Spain, was once larger than the United States, has had at least 19 flags, and at one time duped the American Government to the extent of $10,000,000 by selling it a big tract of land over which Texas had never maintained any control.

These and a thousand more queer facts about Texas are included, and explained, in a unique new 128-page cartoon book, ODD TEXAS, written and compiled by Jack Harper and John Newbern of Dallas.

"All the queer and amazing facts about wild and woolly Texas!" screams the red, white, and blue jacket of this cloth-bound volume. Wild and woolly, queer and amazing it is.

Strange Facts

According to Harper and Newbern, who boast in their preface that canards are loathsome to them, you'll find in Texas horses with hoofs as big around as dinner plates, islands on top of a mountain, a river in which cattle stand up to their necks and bawl for water, houses of cactus plants, rattlesnake steaks, of lightning made of sand, five pound hailstones.

If you had been there when it happened, you could have seen 1,000 horses shot down in cold blood by U. S. soldiers, turkeys roasted with the feathers on, roads full of stumps a foot high, trains on wooden rails, human ears as gifts, quinine served like salt and pepper, or you could have gotten a wagon load of choice steaks—free!

Texas Indians

The Texas Indians come in for full attention in this Texas hodge-podge of fancy illustrations. They had some peculiar habits, such as killing girl babies, traveling a hundred miles or more to get the right kind of cactus for eating purposes, selling Indian beauties for a bow and two arrows and cutting off the noses of unfaithful wives. America's only cannibal Indians lived in Texas.

Sugar-coated Texas history is the forte of ODD TEXAS. Something unusual has been squeezed from every important event in Texas history, engagingly illustrated and tantalizingly worded.

San Jacinto 18 Minutes

For instance. The battle of San Jacinto lasted just 18 minutes and the only artillery used by the Texans were two cannons donated by the citizens of Cincinnati, Ohio. The first official act of the Texas Rangers after their organization was the capturing of a Mexican boat anchored on the Texas coast. The defenders of the Alamo fought under a Mexican flag and James Bowie fought the battle from his bed.

At Goliad Fannin requested (before he was shot) that his watch be sent to his wife, that he be shot in the breast and that he be given a Christian burial. A Mexican lieutenant stole his watch, he was shot in the head, and his body was left where it fell.

Thirteen Capitals

The capital of Texas has been located in thirteen different places, two of them in Mexico and one in Louisiana.

To impress you with size of the State and its resources, you're told by ODD TEXAS that 14 other states could be put inside of Texas with room to spare, that the State is larger than the entire Japanese empire.

Texas produces 97 per cent of the nation's sulphur, 90 per cent of America's polo ponies, nearly one-third of the cotton and oil of the United States, and practically all of the helium in the world.

Freak Stories

There are literally hundreds of such items as the cow that gave birth to a heifer calf each February 4 for three consecutive years (this ain't no bull, either,) the cowboy who beheaded himself with his own lariat trying to rope a steer, and the bird that is half duck and half buzzard.

For further information, you'll have to see the book. We warn you, ODD TEXAS is a volume you can't put down, once you pick it up, so after you start looking you'll have to shell out your dollar and take it home with you.

Sound Local Banking

—helps the Community and the Nation

NO one understands the business needs of his Community so well as the banker who lives and does business there. At the same time he keeps informed as to national business developments and their effect on local conditions. No one is more deeply interested than he in the success and prosperity of his neighbors, for their business welfare means safe, lucrative employment for his loanable funds.

This bank, typical of the American Banking System, is a constructive force in the business life of this Community. It is engaged with many of its neighbors in playing a part in the nation's business by capable management of local enterprise. ## Storm Toll Heavy McDermott Farm Damage estimated at from $2000 to $3000 with no loss of life, is estimated following a wind storm of tornadic intensity on the Giles McDermott farm northeast of Cameron at 4:30 Saturday afternoon.

According to Mexicans who live on the farm the funnel shape cloud dipped down suddenly from the east, demolished three homes in the main, blew another off its blocks and unroofed a large 200 foot barn.

Tornado Strikes Twice

The tornado then lifted. It struck a few yards away and demolished the blacksmith shop. A barn on the Sparks farm close by was reported demolished also. Rushing across the inhabited ridge that overlooks the McDermott bottom farms the cyclone completely wrecked a silo, took the bed from a wagon and tore it to splinters. All debris from the wrecked homes was carried across considerable space and deposited in the pasture of Chas. McDermott, adjoining his brother's farm.

Chas. McDermott said that so far as known no damage was done on his farm adjoining.

Mexicans In Town

Mexicans who lived in the homes demolished were in Cameron and consequently escaped death. Bedsteads and other furniture were twisted and broken by the terrific winds. A half inch of rain accompanied the storm.

Two months ago a cyclone swept through the valley on the Sims farm near Tracy, killing a number of negroes.

HARD LUCK TRAILS FIGURES IN WEIRD LABATT KIDNAPING

Jinx Stalks Persons Linked With Abduction Outrage in Canada.

London, Ont.—The long string of disaster, death and accident that has wrapped itself around those connected with the Labatt kidnap case in this city has been termed coincidence by the practical minded.

Now, with another dead under strange circumstances, they are beginning to wonder.

Perhaps, after all, there is something in this idea of a jinx.

Perhaps it was really the long shadowy fingers of this same jinx that reached around the slender waist of Sue Alric, trapeze artist, and threw her 80 feet to a horrible death.

The trail of the strange, sometimes weird, incidents that have marked the Labatt case and David Meisner, falsely accused kidnaper who was released after spending 10 months in the penitentiary on a 15-year sentence, began before the trial of the Kentucky gambler was scarcely over.

Met With Accident.

On her way home from a hearing one of the witnesses met with an accident and died shortly afterward. Brokenhearted, David Meisner's mother died, believing her son guilty of the kidnaping of John Labatt, wealthy brewer.

Down in Kentucky "Piccolo Pete" Murray was arrested as an accomplice of Meisner. Brought to Canada, he was identified by witnesses, but before he was brought to trial was released when the real kidnaper, Michael McCardle, announced his guilt and absolved both Meisner and Murray. But the G-man who arrested "Piccolo Pete" was later shot to death making another arrest.

During the trial McCardle hinted that Louis McCaughey, trusted employee and export manager of Labatt's firm, had known of the snatch. McCaughey was also absolved from blame. But he lost his job. Unemployment also struck at Hamar Gardiner, ace sleuth of the provincial police, who worked on the case.

Inspector Fired.

Other than announcing that his dismissal had something to do with his work on the trial, the government refused to state why Inspector Gardiner was forced to leave his police duties. His record was the best in the provincial police system. He was brilliant, well-liked. Or the Labatt jinx.

This strange curse attacked the legal profession. Charles Bell, who defended Meisner, lost his only son through a motor accident, and Howard Cluff, assistant defense counsel, suffered a heart attack while on a train en route to Toronto, and died. He was young, robust, never having suffered a day's illness.

Another member of the legal profession, Dick Levy, Labatt's personal counsel, was injured in another motor accident.

Coincidence? Perhaps. But the Greeks had a better name. They called it a jinx.

Wagon in Tree 50 Years, Prankster Admits Joke

Welland, Ont.—On Halloween day 50 years ago Lemuel Rachar, Welland business man, abandoned a wagon near Lake Hunger, in Norfolk county, 65 miles west of Welland. When he returned with tools to repair it he found that youngsters of the neighborhood had placed the wagon high in an elm tree.

The wagon remained there throughout the years, becoming firmly wedged in the tree's branches.

A few days ago Mr. Rachar drove some friends to Norfolk county to see the wagon in the tree. They were standing gazing at it when another man arrived, got out of his car and looked toward the wagon with interest.

"It makes me think of old times," he said. "I'm J. Ivey of Windon and I helped haul that wagon up there 50 years ago."

Jinx Hits Families on Eleven-Year Schedule

Minneapolis.—Every 11 years the average American family can expect a major emergency—a serious illness, an operation or accident—according to a survey made here.

If it is an illness it is most likely to be pneumonia or stomach ulcers and cost about $348. If it is an operation it probably will be an appendectomy costing $259. The accident would most likely be an automobile crash or a fall costing $240 for doctors, nurses and hospitalization.

These were the observations made by the Northwestern National Life Insurance company after a survey of 324 policyholder families throughout the country.

Pointing out that the average monthly income reported was $229, the survey revealed that the average emergency cost of $318 takes six weeks' income for each emergency.

Farmer Loses Home,

Moves Into a Cave

Beebe, Ark.—Frank Lee, Cleburne county fisher and trapper, claims to be Arkansas' only cave dweller, as he recently completed remodeling a huge cavern into a home.

The cave, one of many that can be found in a rock bluff more than 1,000 feet long and 75 feet high, is 60 feet square, with an opening measuring 10 by 6 feet.

Using rough lumber, Lee has made a door which can be swung open to admit sunlight and fresh air in the winter and cool breezes in the summer.

Lee, a bachelor, lost his farm by foreclosure and decided on the cave home.

DOGS' DUDE RANCH OFFERS EVERYTHING

About All That's Lacking Is Cocktail Bar.

Pasadena, Calif.—A dude ranch for dogs is the West's latest contribution to modern civilization. The idea was that of Gladys Shipman, dog fancier of this city.

Inspired by the stories of the eastern human dudes who visit dude ranches of the West, she conceived the idea that dude dogs should have the same privileges as dude humans.

So she opened her dude ranch for dogs at Big Bear lake. Already it is a going concern. The dogs don't have much to say about whether they get to go there, but once they get there they have lots to say about what a dude ranch for dogs really means to them.

The dude ranch is described as being a veritable seventh heaven for dogs. They have regular working activities such as hunting, hiking and sun-bathing.

There is a special play yard for pups. There is also a maternity ward, painted in blue and white, with private apartments and runways for each dog.

At present a special diet kitchen is turning out from 300 to 400 pounds of scientifically balanced rations daily, containing all the necessary dog vitamins, mineral salts and other elements essential to real dog life.

Goat milk is given preference over cow's milk and special diets of tomato juice and buttermilk are arranged for boarders whose health demands special attention.

In fact, about the only thing lacking that is found in the big dude ranches of the West is the cocktail lounge.

The dude ranch for dogs has among its prominent patrons Harold Lloyd, who has a Swiss imported Saint Bernard; the Duncan sisters, who own dancing dogs; Carington North of the Columbia studios, who owns a Russian wolfhound, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hilton, who have a private corral for their flock of imported black Newfoundlanders.

Iron Bar Falls, Tears

Shirt but Misses Worker

Bonneville, Ore.—The "crowbar ease," famous in medical history, nearly had another one to rival it here in what is probably the outstanding freak accident on the Bonneville dam.

A concrete worker was standing on a heavy timber at the base of one of the piers in the main spillway dam. Above him a crew was stripping forms from the pier top, 60 feet from the ground. One of the strippers accidentally dropped his bar, a five-foot straight pointed bar.

It dropped like an arrow, pierced the brim of the concrete worker's hat, shot down between his heavy coat and his underwear, and literally pinned him to the timber when it came out of the seat of his trousers and stuck in the wood.

The point of the bar was buried more than three inches in the heavy timber, yet it had not touched the man's skin. He was treated at the emergency hospital for shock.

Train Waits for Collie

Playing on the Tracks

Alpena, Mich.—A collie dog was playing on the tracks here recently when a north-bound train pulled out to leave the city. The engineer stopped the train to wait for the dog to leave the tracks, but the collie kept on with its play.

Several minutes elapsed and finally the train edged toward the dog, but this failed to frighten the collie. Finally the dog gave the train the right of way.

Cat Is Spry at 23

Portland, Ore.—Charles Huiras of Conby claims the feline longevity record for his cat, "Old Tom," who is twenty-three and still going strong as far as rodent catching and dog-challenging are concerned.

Current Kills Rattles

Dillon, Mont.—Electric "prod poles" which get their kick from batteries are now being used in hunting rattlesnakes. The last organized hunt here reaped a harvest of 65 rattlesnakes.

CAMERON VOTERS GET NATIONAL BALLOTS

Individual ballots have been mailed to voters of Cameron and nearby communities in a new Literary Digest poll of over 10,000,000 persons to ascertain who will be the next President of the United States. The votes should be distributed within a few days, according to advice received today from the magazine's publishers.

Returns from Texas in this 1936 referendum will be tallied as a unit so they may be compared with the voting in other states, it is announced.

The voting of the post-card ballots is identical as no signature or other identification is required and the return postage is paid by magazine. To guard against tampering and counterfeiting a specially manufactured cardboard is used for printing the ballot, according to the sponsors of the poll, and all spurious votes can be detected immediately and destroyed.

Voter Has Choice

The ballot asks the voter's choice of the seven officially nominated candidates and for whom he or she voted in the 1932 election to reveal the general drift from one party to another.

This is announced as the fourth quadrennial national Presidential poll conducted by The Literary Digest. The three previous polls have forecast the Presidential winner with "uncanny accuracy."

Ballots are reported being mailed the magazine's headquarters in New York at the rate of over 350,000 per day and will continue until every section of the country has been sent its proportionate share of the total being mailed.

First Report Sept. 5

Publication of the first tabulated returns is anticipated about Sept. 5.

The forthcoming balloting will be the twelfth national multi-million vote poll conducted by The Literary Digest besides several localized referendums which include the 1933 Mayoralty contest in New York City and the 1934 Gubernatorial election in California.

Seven of the twelve polls were held in advance of elections and each of the seven forecast the official outcome with a small margin of error, the magazine reports.

Forecast Roosevelt

The Literary Digest states that just prior to the 1932 election it predicted Roosevelt would get 59.86 per cent of the popular vote in his campaign against Hoover. The official returns showed that the President received 59.14 per cent of the Roosevelt-Hoover vote, revealing an error of 0.72 per cent in the magazine's forecast.

A staff of more than 2,000 additional employees is reported to have been engaged by The Literary Digest for the mailing of the ballots and the tallying of the returns in the forthcoming Presidential poll.

A look through the late war intelligence suggests that some of the old Spanish costumes go back to the Inquisition.

When Mr. Farley, already holding four jobs, foresees a further increase in employment, it sounds almost ominous.

R. L. Batte the Modern Pioneer Succeeds With Cattle Feeding Industry In Milam County Featuring The Trench Silo For Feeds

R. Lee Batte, cowman, sat in his office at Cameron recently recounting some of his experiences with beef cattle in Texas. His experience goes back forty-eight years. To hear Mr. Batte was to thrill at the accomplishments of a modern pioneer.

Erect, of medium stature, keen eyed, rosy cheeked, with a crisp mustache, the enthusiasm and vigor of the man belie his years. He works about twelve hours a day. Personally, he directs the running of his numerous enterprises. His pastures and plantations, owned or controlled, run into thousands of acres. Several hundred head of beef cattle are to be found in his feed lots. He has his own gins and his own cottonseed oil mill. Much of his transportation is provided with his own fleet of trucks.

Knows His Cattle

Modestly, Mr. Batte says that maybe he has learned something about beef cattle in half a century. Asked for an interview, he cheerfully consented although saying that many others in Texas knew as much or more than he does about beef cattle.

Back in 1888, Mr. Batte had his first experience in handling beef cattle. That year he shipped several head to Gail Borden on the Texas Gulf Coast (the Borden of condensed milk fame.)

In 1890, while he was running a feed store, Mr. Batte bought a carload of cottonseed meal and hulls, the first shipped into Milam County. Farmers were skeptical about this newfangled feed, and it took some time to dispose of it. Mr. Batte believed in meal and hulls and began feeding them. He is still feeding them.

To the Osage Indian Nation in 1894 Mr. Batte shipped some of the cattle he had fed out. These were of poor quality, of the Longhorn type, which he had bought down in the Rio Grande Valley.

Barred From Kansas

Kansas put a crimp in Mr. Batte's cattle feeding operations by barring Texas cattle from the State in 1899. This was on account of some new disease, highly fatal to cattle, which later came to be known as Texas Tick Fever. Some West Texas bulls which Mr. Batte brought to Milam County to feed in 1904 died of this disease.

Lee Batte admits that he has made a little money feeding cattle. His friends say that he has made a lot of money. What success he has had appears to have come as a result of his careful study and incessant experimenting. Like all other good business men he has worked toward higher quality of product and lower cost of production.

Favors Herefords

Well-bred Herefords are favored by Mr. Batte for Milam County, a county which lies in the southwest corner of the East Texas Chamber area. With good sires Mr. Batte thinks it possible for East Texas farmers to breed up their native cattle for satisfactory feeding stock. He has tried the old Longhorns, cattle in various stages of improvement on the Longhorn, Durhams, and others.

In addition to much feeding stock which he raises himself, Mr. Batte has to feed feeding stock extensively. He prefers cattle from the middle Brazos valley to those from any other section of the Southwest. There is such a thing as acclimating cattle, Mr. Batte says. Cattle may be carried from a low to a slightly higher altitude advantageously; but not the opposite. Cattle like wind and do better where there is a steady breeze most of the time.

Trench Silos

Trench silos were first tried by Mr. Batte in 1933. It was with his experience in using trench silos that this sketch was prompted.

It may be recalled that in 1933 few ventures held much hope of profits. Moreover, money and credit were a bit difficult to command. The trench silo had just made its appearance, holding promise of large quantities of cheap feed that might be produced on the farm. Mr. Batte, largely through force of circumstance, decided to give the trench silo a trial. His experience was highly satisfactory. Now, trench silos are a big factor in beef cattle feeding on the Batte farms.

Favors Hegari

There are twenty-two trench silos with a total capacity of 25,000 tons serving Mr. Batte's feeding pens. The largest of these—maybe the largest in the world—is a trench cut back in the bluff overlooking the Little River. It is 225 feet long, thirty-two feet deep at its greatest depth, fourteen feet wide at the top.

In 1935 the Batte farms actually put up 16,900 tons of silage for the 1935-36 season. After feeding out around 3,000 head of beef, probably 5,000 tons of this silage will be carried over.

Has 22 Trench Silos

This silage in 1935 was made from corn tops, red top cane, and hegari, the latter comprising by far the greatest volume. All things considered hegari is favored above all other raw materials for silage by Mr. Batte.

Cattle in the Batte feeding pens get silage, cottonseed meal, hulls, and some grain sorghum hay. Rations vary according to age of cattle being fed, season of the year, and stage of feeding. All of this feed is grown and processed by Mr. Batte. This feeding plan represents a sort of an agricultural vertical merger.

Improved Pastures

Improved pastures have the strong

(3). Use of cottonseed meal and hulls which most East Texas farmers can receive in exchange for cottonseed grown on their own farms; and

(4). Development of permanent pastures.

Tick Eliminated

The tick is virtually gone from East Texas. The aim of the Federal Government at present at least is to hold down production of soil depleting crops, among which are included cotton and corn. East Texas soil, topography, and climate are such as to recommend beef cattle over some other forms of agricultural enterprise. May we suggest that East Texas farmers, perhaps in a small way, seek to duplicate the successful experience with beef cattle of Lee Batte, Milam County—From The Magazine—East Texas.

"The Phantom Rider"

Considering how fine this railroad transportation is nowadays, you can't travel any cheaper. Fares lowest in history—substantial savings on round trip tickets. So why not take the train? It's safer. It's more dependable.

You can't beat the improved travel comfort in coaches and sleeping cars. It's a good thing movies don't have such restful seats—most folks would sure fall asleep.

Ever hear about the new Free pick-up-and-delivery of less than carload freight? It's a great convenience to shippers and receivers alike. Western railroads pick up at the door, ship by fast freight, and deliver to door at no extra charge.

Railroad trains are running on faster schedules these days. Seems like the iron horse wants to show these new streamlined diesels that he can step out, too. Both passenger and freight schedules have been speeded up.

What's more, the railroads believe in "safety first." Last year not one passenger was killed in a train accident on western railroads.

Talk to your local railroad agent. He's full of information about traveling and shipping.

We are proud of railroad achievements, appreciate the public's good will and increased patronage, and pledge continued progress.

Three Sets of Twins in Succession

Three sets of twins in succession have been welcomed to the family of the Andrew Jackson Robertsons of Walla Walla, Wash. Born in 1933, 1934, and 1935, only the youngest pair were of the same sex.

News From MINERVA

Friends were grief-stricken to learn of the death of Mrs. Proctor Jones, 24, at the Cameron Hospital on Wednesday morning, August 26, at 5:30.

Nora Lucille Sealy Jones was born April 8, 1912 near Lexington, Texas. At the age of four she lost her father, Lee Sealy. She later moved to Medicine Lodge, Kansas, with her mother and step-father, A. L. Goddard and attended the grade schools there. Her family then moved to California and she was graduated from high school in that state.

She was baptized in infancy and was converted while in California. She attended and worked in the Methodist church.

She came back to Texas on May 1, 1933, and was married to Proctor Jones, June 2, 1934.

To this union were born two children, a daughter, Nora Nannette, age 18 months; and a son, Gary Proctor, only three days old when his darling mother passed to her reward.

All who knew Lucille loved her for her friendly, gentle, loving personality. She greeted each one with a smile and even in her deepest suffering, was cheerful and brave.

In the passing of Lucille this community has indeed lost one of its sweetest residents.

Funeral services for Mrs. Jones were conducted at the Minerva Methodist church by Rev. L. E. Strickland of Rockdale, with Rev. Waiton Day of Minerva, assisting.

A quartet, composed of Mrs. Ernest Jacob, Mrs. Eddie Bryant, G. M. Houston and Rev. Walton Day sang a special request of Mr. Jones, "Whispering Hope."

Interment was made in the Tanglewood cemetery.

Surviving Mrs. Jones are her husband, a daughter and son; her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Goddard of Healdsburg, California; three sisters, Mrs. Ray Leech, Corsicana; Mrs. W. E. ## Rules of Training Laid Down to Yoemen Pinks Who Eat Ice Cream and Hear Sweaters Talked About in First Meeting of Season Friday

By PEEPIING REPORTER

A small band of hopefuls from which Coach L. C. Wood, the modern miracle man, hopes to fashion the Yoemen machine for 1936, ate ice cream and heard training rules laid down Friday night when the coach was host to the boys and a few invited guests.

It was the first meeting of the year. Training started Monday afternoon. The meeting was held on Yoemen field and so for the first time the lights were turned on. It was anything but impressive. Coach Wood made a good talk and so did Albert Collins, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Sweaters Mentioned

There was some laughter when sweaters were mentioned. It was generally agreed something should be done about it before next summer. Someone with only a nominal amount of business ability should handle the sweater problem, it was agreed.

Coach Wood, the best Class B mentor in Texas, laid down his manifesto of morals. No smoking, swearing, proper eating and lots of hard work. A brave little band of prospective Yoemen sat in silence on the rickety old stand and heard the coach plead for co-operation and loyalty. Consensus is they will go out there and fight but nobody expects them to win.

Big Boys Present

A few members of the Athletic Council were present and J. C. Martin President of the Board of Education, and Superintendent E. A. Perrin.

Coach Wood has only 5 letter men. They are: Joe McLean and Gerald Mode, co-captains; Jimmie Stewart of Milano, Earl Peck who is expected to develop into one of the all time best backfield men this year.

The Yoemen schedule opens here on September 18 against Marlin. The next game is with Caldwell at Caldwell on September 25th.

No Stadium Yet

The south side of the field is still barren of bleachers. Last year it was believed by the time the 1936 schedule opened the new concrete seats and steel stands would be up. Now it may be October or next year before they are available.

On the whole prospects are gloomy but anything may happen. Coach Wood was expecting the new uniforms in time for the Marlin game. They are red this year with white stripes, a reversal of the striking uniforms last year, agreed by all to be the classiest ever seen in this district. Why they were discarded nobody seems to know.

Small Crew

Its the same story this year as ever. Only about 30 boys reporting for practice. Cameron should have a hundred men fighting for a chance to play under Carrol Wood. New uniforms for the band will help to swell the spectacle but out there on the gridiron—well, its certain there won't be much—to start with.

E. D. Parnell, F. R. Dunlap and William (Smiles) Moran spent Tuesday in Waco.

HAROLD JACKSON GOES TO MONAHANS

Harold S. Jackson, son of Mrs. F. E. Jackson of Cameron, has accepted a position with the Piggly Wiggly Store in Monahans as bookkeeper.

Mr. and Mrs. Mert Dinnis of Monticello, Arkansas, were guests this week of Rev. and Mrs. P. L. Caperton.

Students' Bodies Light Bulbs

University of Utah students demonstrate a unique machine they designed and built. Using their bodies as wires and their hands as light sockets, they illuminate lamp bulbs and neon tubes. Leonard G. to the Cameron Theatre Saturday, Sept. 5, with a talented cast headed by Margaret Lindsay, Glenda Farrell, Warren Hull and Lyle Talbot.

The plot is said to move with rapid fire action from the first sequence when a bomb is dropped in a restaurant by a racketeer to the denouement in which the boss gangster is convicted of poisoning milk for babies and viliing witnesses to cover up his tracks.

Misunderstandings pile up in the path of the two lovers and opposing lawyers, roles played by Miss Lindsay and Hull, until the amazing climax brings the solution to their knotty problem.

STIMULANT BRINGS LIFE BACK TO GIRL

Heart Injection Is Given to "Dead" Patient.

London.—"I've lost seven minutes out of my life. Now I want to get back to work and to life."

Comely Miss Mary Devonport, twenty-year-old English girl, already had come back to life when she spoke these words. Literally. Because she had been dead for those seven minutes. Quick thinking and action by a doctor saved her.

Today she is one of Britain's two current medical curiosities.

The other is another young Englishwoman whose gold wedding ring turns platinum when she has sick headaches.

If she takes off the ring it changes back to gold. But, she said:

"If I do not wear the ring while the attack lasts, my illness is far more severe and I am completely deprived of the power to do even the simplest things."

Both cases were revealed by doctors in the "British Medical Journal."

Dr. A. A. Masser described how he gave Miss Davenport chloroform in a dental chair:

"The patient suddenly went white and breathing stopped.

"No response of any kind occurred so I decided to try a heart injection of icoral" (emergency stimulant used in pneumonia and also used after operations).

"Using a syringe with a long needle I plunged the needle into the left ventricle of the heart and slowly injected the icoral.

"Massage through the diaphragm was continued and in about one minute I could see a faint flicker of pulsation in the external jugular vein of the neck.

"After another 10 minutes of artificial respiration, breathing recommenced and the pulse at the wrist gradually returned."

Hungarians Engage in Four Duels in One Day

Budapest.—The following duels were fought during one day, in Hungary:

First—Dr. Luigi Zambra, Italian professor of Italian literature at Budapest university, a saber duel with Dr. Francis Koeszeg, dentist. They fought in consequence of a quarrel concerning a lady. The professor injured the dentist on the hand.

Second—Joseph Makoldy, well-known painter, and Dr. Bartholomew Geoeze, lawyer, fought each other with heavy cavalry swords. Both seriously injured. They had been opponents in a lawsuit.

Third—Another lawyer, Dr. Alexander Csopor, fought with Dr. Nicholas Staud, a civil servant in Zombathely of West Hungary. Csopor challenged Staud's father, a Supreme court judge, but the son fought for his aged father. The duel lasted one minute. Csopor seriously injured Staud on the forehead with his first stroke. The case arose out of a lawsuit.

Fourth—A third lawyer, Dr. Imre Keeskemeti of Oroshaza (Central Hungary) challenged John Mitasowsky, editor of the local paper. The editor criticized the new pagan sect, of which Keeskemeti is an ardent follower. They fought with sabers and the editor was injured.

Girls, 14, Earn Way

London.—Half of the fourteen-year-old girls, and four out of every five girls of eighteen or over, are earning their own living in Britain, a survey conducted by the Women's Employment Federation revealed. The average wage expectation of a university girl entering work is that she should begin at $10 or $15 a week.

Justice Is Speedy

Butte, Mont.—Municipal Judge Louis A. Buckley believes he has the world's record for brevity of a court session. He convened court, accepted the guilty plea of a man and sentenced him to 30 days; suspended the sentence because the man had a job, and adjourned court—all in one minute.

LAWRENCE'S ICERS LOSE TO SURGEONS

Eleven Surgeon hits and rain at the end of the fifth melted the Cameron Icers 8 to 3 Sunday in the opener of the Heart O' Texas "fair play" championship series here.

Rain was steady but light from the start of the game, but just as the fifth inning ended the fall became so heavy as to stop play.

The Surgeons wasted no time in jumping on Schottle, Icer starting pitcher. They shelled him out of the game in the first with five hits that brought five runs. Two of the hits were home runs.

Jansing Homers

Ken Lee opened with a single, and was advanced by Carl Craft's sacrifice bunt. Lefty Morgan doubled off the right field wall, scoring Lee, who had gone to third on a passed ball. Harold Jansing of Rosebud dropped a four-baser over the left field fence to score Morgan ahead of him. Buckley then singled and came in as Alva Anderson of Eddy hit a single down third base line that went for a homer as the ball hopped through a hole in the fence.

The Surgeons added another in the second on Ken Lee's double and Morgan's single, with Wright in the box for the Icers. Jenness filled the outfield gap left by Wright.

Icers Score In Fourth

The third was scoreless, but the Icers landed on Bugga Moon for all three of their runs in the fourth. Allen singled. Doc Smith of Noack singled to right field, and the throw in was over second and got past third, both runners advancing. Wright got a Texas league single, scoring Allen. Dowling flied out to center field, Smith scoring as the peg got away from Catcher Bowlin. Worcester doubled to center, scoring Wright, to end the scoring.

The last of the fourth and fifth brought the Surgeons a run each. In the fourth, Moon got a Texas league single, advanced on Lee's grounder to first, and scored on Carl Craft's hit

For Bad Feeling

Due to Constipation

Get rid of constipation by taking Black-Draught as soon as you notice that bowel activity has slowed up or you begin to feel sluggish. Thousands prefer Black-Draught for the refreshing relief it has brought them. Mrs. Ray Mullins, of Lufkin, Ark., writes: "My husband and I both take Theodor's Black-Draught and find it splendid for constipation, biliousness, and the disagreeable, aching, tired feeling that comes from this condition." With reference to Syrup of Black-Draught, which this mother gives her children, she says: "They like the taste and it gave such good results."

through the box that brought the pitcher up off the ground. In the fifth, Jansing was safe at first on a passed third strike, was forced at second by Evans, and Evans scored on Buckley's single and Anderson's Eexas leaguer. Bowlin hit into a crisp double play, short to second to first, to end the game.

Meet Again Sunday

Morgan, Lee, Buckley and Anderson, with two each led the Surgeon hitters, and Doc Smith had two for the Icers.

Anderson, with a shoestring running catch and one that put his shoulders against the fence, was the defensive standout.

The teams will tangle again in Cameron next Sunday afternoon.
